

11/14/2022

Dear MJMS Families,

I have just a couple of quick updates for you.

- Co-parenting Presentation: The FRC is hosting a co-parenting event at Southside tomorrow at 6 pm. A flyer is on page 3.

- Literacy Dress-up Days:

Dress Up Week 14 Get Cozy with a Book (Pajama Day)	Fall into Childhood 15 (dress as your favorite childhood book character)	Word Wednesday 16 wear a shirt with as many words as possible - school appropriate	Warm up with a 17 Book (scarves and hats day) Gallery Walk Through	Idiom Day 18 dress as an idiom (i.e. "under the weather", "raining cats and dogs")
---	---	--	---	--

- Weather Changes: With the weather changes, the inside of the building can be hot, cold, or perfect. Please have your students dress in layers to be comfortable all day!
- Labels: Please consider labeling jackets/hoodies, lunch boxes, and water bottles. The lost and found in the office is out of control, and we will donate items that remain unclaimed at Christmas break. If your child has lost an item, have him/her go check for it.
- Thanksgiving Break: Remember that students and teachers are off the entire week next week.

Bear Pride in the Middle!

Candis Angle

Looking Forward:

- Purchase a yearbook! They are now $50 at https://yearbookforever.com/schools/mount_juliet_middle_school_buy_yearbook_332898/jEmMYu3aQoB7rropP5PIbE70
- Sports dates and times are on our website at www.wcschools.com/mjms
- November 15: Literacy dress up day, Fall into Childhood (dress up as your favorite childhood book character)
- November 15: Math textbook showcase at the ATC, 4:00 - 7:00
- November 16: Literacy dress up day, Word Wednesday (wear a shirt with as many words as possible)
- November 17: Literacy dress up day, Warm Up With a Book (scarves and hats day)
- November 18: Literacy dress up day, Idiom Day (dress up as an idiom such as “under the weather” or “raining cats and dogs”)
- December 2: Dress up day, Holiday socks and hats (this will also allow everyone to get in the mood for our Holiday Drama show this weekend!)
- December 2-3: Happy MJ Holiday Drama Presentation
- December 5: Dress up day, Christmas pajamas
- December 6: Dress up day, Holiday Character (you can be santa, an elf, a snowman, a character from a Christmas movie, etc.)
- December 7: Dress up day Ugly Christmas Sweater
- December 8: Dress up day, Black and Gold
- December 8: Coming Home
- December 13: Band/Choir Concert

Raising Amazing Kids in Complex Families

SINGLE PARENTS • STEP PARENTS • NEVER MARRIED PARENTS • GRANDPARENTS

Families come in all shapes and sizes and co-parenting isn't easy!
Join Jay and Tammy Daughtry of The Center For Modern Family Dynamics and Wilson County Schools* for an insightful and impactful presentation about co-parenting.

Topics will include...
*Communicating With and About The Ex,
Co-Parenting during the holidays and "The Hand-off"*

Who: Wilson County Parents
When: Tuesday, November 15, 2022
6:00-7:00PM with Q&A 7:00-7:30
Where: Southside School Library
1224 Murfreesboro Road, Lebanon

*Wilson County Schools does not endorse, promote or confirm information within the presentation.